As in the past, these traditional and familiar American symbols will be the National Christmas Tree, the smaller trees representing the various states, District of Columbia and the territories, a burning yule log, various seasonal musical presentations, and a traditional creche which is not owned by the Government.

In order to facilitate this process the National Park Service will hold a meeting at 9:00 a.m. on November 2, 2012, in Room 234 of the National Capital Region Headquarters Building, at 1100 Ohio Drive, SW., Washington, DC (East Potomac Park).

Persons who would like to comment at the meeting should notify the National Park Service by November 1, 2012, by calling the White House Visitor Center weekdays between 9 a.m., and 4 p.m., at (202) 208-1631.
